Explanation how to use the editor.

Owners and managers of our groups can create webpages on their group. Members can start a discussion on a messageboard. Both can be designed by using the editor, which is placed in every webpage of message.

A editor is a softwareprogram to create website and messages. As soon as you open a website of discussion, the next toolbar wil appear:

You can read the function of the buttons in Dutch, if you hover quietly over the buttons.

Underneath you'll find all functions.
