Click here to read this manual in PDF

You can find many groups on Omni-Chat sorted in various categories.
Each manager determines the rules for his / her group.
These rules apply in addition to the Code of Conduct of Omni-Chat.
It is common for any visitor or member of the group to respect these rules.

This manual is divided in:

- Types of groups
- All categories
- Applying for membership

Types of groups:

The application of membership depends on the settings for each group. There are three possibilities:

- Anyone may view and become a member of this group without the permission of a manager.
- Anyone may view this group but needs to be approved by a manager to join.
- Nobody can view this group without first applying and being approved for membership by a manager.
